PRIVACY POLICY

As of the 25th May 2018 there was the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into force. Our website has been updated to inform you of these changes.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

New Addington Little League Football understands that your privacy is important and that it matters how your personal data is used. As a League we will only collect and use the personal data that is relevant and laid out in the document but also in a way that is consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law. New Addington Little League Football needs to keep and process information about you for administrative purposes. The information that we hold and process will be solely used for our management and administrative use only. We will keep and use it so that we are able to run the League. In this regard New Addington Little League Football acts as the 'Data Controller' and League Secretary would be the 3rd party as the 'Data Processor'.

What is Personal Data?

Personal data means any information about an individual from which that individual can be identified. The information you give us may include name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, gender, and the contact details of a third party in the case of emergency. We may also ask for relevant health information, which is classed as special category personal data, for the purposes of health, wellbeing, welfare and safeguarding. Where we hold this data it will be with the explicit consent of the participant or, if applicable, the participant's parent or guardian.

Where we need to collect personal data to fulfil New Addington Little League Football responsibilities and you do not provide that data, we may not be able honour or administer your registration.

What personal data is collected
